

Did you know?

We have five women's groups in our Parish. Do you belong to one? If not would you like to find out more?

Cross Talk is a coffee and dessert evening for woman wanting to connect with each other on a Christian context. They welcome woman with a desire to have a closer relationship with God.

Cross Talk meet in the Hall Foyer on the 1st Friday of each month between 7pm-8.30pm.

Contact Anne Mills phone 855 7434.

Chartwell Fellowship meets on the third Wednesday of the month in the Church Centre. Night time meetings are held during daylight saving and afternoon meetings during the rest of the year. They have speakers or demonstrations and a yearly Missions Dinner in May where they raise funds for a Mission Project. All ladies are welcome to come and join them. Contact is Judy Williard phone 855 9459 or the Church Office.

St Albans Women's Guild Fellowship is a lovely group of over 30 ladies in their late 70's to 90's. They have some very interesting meetings inviting many people from our Church who show them power point presentations on a variety of subjects. Yoeland Luker one of their members plays the Piano to accompany them and they sing lovely hymns at their meetings. They support many organizations such as Leprosy Mission; Overseas Missions; Hospice and any immediate funds that are needed. Each year they support our Church Fair and their members knit Colourful Rugs for children in orphanages who live in the freezing cold Moldova and Romania country.

Contact is Noeline Rountree phone 849 3698. This group meet 2nd Tuesday morning in the month.

Queenwood Fellowship are a group of about 22 ladies who meet in each others homes, on the 2nd Wed evening of the month, usually with a guest speaker. As a group they assist with morning teas, Charter folding, fund raising activities, the garden stall at the Church Fair and at the beginning of each term they make sandwiches for children at Fairfield Primary Scholl who do not have a lunch. At least once a year they have a social evening with their husbands and partners.

Contact is Jan Silvester phone 855 8236.

St Albans Fellowship meet monthly usually on the 3rd Wednesday at 7.30pm. They currently have about 30 members and meet in each others homes for fellowship and social occasions. They either have a guest speaker, or a mid year dinner and end of year barbecue. The group is involved in supporting St Albans Church and holds the sweet stall at the Church Fair, help with morning tea after services and fold Charter when required. We donate to the Food Bank and also make a small donation to a charity of our choice with funds raised throughout the year.

Contact person is Jan Henderson phone 854 5822.

If you would like more information please contact Margaret or Ruth in the Church Office.
