Patronal Festival Confirmation Service

Sunday June 23rd

This special service which involves the heads of our three partner churches is a time when there is an invitation for those seeking to be confirmed to indicate their wish to take this step. Please prayerfully think about taking this step. I am happy to have a conversation & answer any questions. Let the office know and I will be in touch. Gloria.

Eco Corner

The Fairfield project is 10 years old.

Here are some ways you could currently become involved:

- Monthly gully working bees on the 3rd Saturday of every month from 9 - 11.30am
- Potting bees are run alongside the monthly working bees
- Mid-week working bees are held on Wednesday mornings, from 10.30 - 12.00, where we carry out a range of seasonal tasks.
- As part of Neighbours Month, we are running informal workshops alongside our March midweek working bees - a flyer is on the noticeboard.
- Individual volunteer tasks can be negotiated and allocated, determined by interests and skills
- Corporate or business climate action, service, sponsorship or simple volunteering
- Helping in the community garden
- Helping with predator control
- Come to a workshop
- Pop in and see what is happening

Our regular team members offer their time when we host groups on site - we welcome new members to this team

Most of our activities are based at The Watershed, but some are held at Te Aratiatia Community Marae.

Please don't hesitate to get in touch, by messaging via our Facebook page, emailing the_richers@slingshot.co.nz, or by phone to 0278445348.
