Eco Corner—

Books that hope for the future

The book by Jane Goodall called “Hope” reinforces Jane’s four pillars of hope for the future. They are:-

The amazing human intellect,

The resilience of nature,

The power and dedication of young people,

And the indomitable human spirit

Here are some more titles for you to look up:-

Life After Doom: Wisdom and Courage for a World Falling Apart by Brian McLaren

The Forest Underground: Hope for a Planet in Crisis by Tony Rinaudo

Saying Yes to Life by Ruth Valerio (Archbishop of Canterbury Lenten book.)

For the Beauty of the Earth, A Christian Vision for Creation Care by Steven Bouma-Predigre

Creation and Hope: Reflections on Ecological Anticipation and Action from Aotearoa New Zealand edited by Nicola Hogan Creegan & Andrew Shepherd.

Do you have other suggestions that we should add to this list and/or recommendations?

Garden Working Bee

Saturday April 12th

at 9.00am.

As our young people head off to Easter Camp this week, we pray that they will:

- Have an open heart to hear God’s word
- Experience music that brings them closer to God
- Cope with the excitement and the exhaustion of camp and have fun!
- Have wisdom to best support others around them

Lord, we pray that they will safely and happily enjoy all aspects of the camp and return refreshed in your spirit.

Please remain at home if you have cold, covid or flu-like symptoms. Many in our community are vulnerable to respiratory infections and will appreciate it if you do not come to the church premises until you are well. Thank you
