Reflecting on last week's service. God of all time, we give thanks for those who came before us—whose faith built this place of welcome. May their courage guide us. We honour those yet to come, that they may find love, justice, and peace alive in this community of Christ. Amen.

Work is continuing on cutting out feathers and getting ready to create our church korowai. We have been thrilled by your response to this project. You will see it hung in the Worship Centre Foyer when complete.

Holiday Club is on again from Monday to Wednesday this coming week. We have a full house and a wait list! This is a great testament to our youth leaders and Amanda.

Our youth leaders are volunteers from our youth group. They give up 3 days of their school holidays to support this program for kids from our church and community, so we feed them!

If you are able to support by providing snacks, baking or hot food please let the office know and bring it along.

Many of you are familiar with David Henshaw's work. Arts Post (120 Victoria St) are hosting an exhibition of his water colour paintings and pen drawings.
Closes July 7th.

Help Needed

For the September Messy Church we need the plastic lids off your milk bottles or similar size drink bottles. We also recycle the metal lids off glass drink bottles. Please bring these items into the office or to church on a Sunday.

The Annual Toy Sale is on Saturday July 5th and they need your help! Any donations of toys will directly support our Toy Library.

Please drop them off to the office.
