Faith—Belief—Action

Loving God, We give thanks for the gift of Scripture—ancient words, living truth. In its pages we find challenge and comfort, wisdom and grace. Speak to us through its stories, its poetry, and its promises. Help us to listen deeply and faithfully, whether we seek certainty or mystery. May Your Spirit guide our understanding, shaping our hearts to love more fully, act more justly, and walk humbly with You. Let the Bible be a lamp on our path and a wellspring of hope, as we journey together in faith. In Your holy name we pray, Amen.

Great fun for all the family !

Security—Please read

An expensive piece of equipment was stolen from the church grounds last Friday whilst the owner was only 10 metres away. This also happened once last year. Please remember that members of the public walk and drive through our premises all the time. We recommend working in pairs outside, and keeping your equipment with you, or locked in your vehicle. Please also lock your vehicle, even if you'll 'be back in a minute'.

When inside, please make sure the external door you entered through is locked if it is not in eye-sight, and that the office internal security door is locked if the outside door is open. We have had 4 security risk events in the last 2 months. Please be vigilant and advise the office immediately if there are any safety or security concerns.

You can do this after hours by phoning the office number and pressing 2. Could all parishioners with a security card / fob please contact the office for updated information.

Newcomers Morning Tea for anyone joining in the last 2 years.

November 9th after the Family Service. Ask for details from the office.

New Minister of Chartwell Cooperating Church (St Albans) announced

It is with great pleasure that we announce the appointment of the Reverend Peter Bargh as the next Minister of Chartwell Cooperating Church. Peter, Kahu and family are well known to the people of Chartwell Cooperating Church, living very close by and regularly supporting St Albans. We know this appointment will be widely welcomed. Peter will initially be appointed to a 0.8 EFT position as he will continue as the Archdeacon for Tauranga and the Bay of Plenty in the Diocese of Waiapu. Because of his current responsibilities Peter will not formally take up the role until the beginning of 2026 but will begin some very limited ministry under a Letter of Authority from 14 November 2025. His next Sunday service will be on the 7th of December 2025. Our prayers are with Peter, his family, and the leadership and people of the Parish of Chartwell as this important new beginning approaches.

Bishop Philip Richardson, On behalf of the Board of Nomination and the Partner Churches.

Please remain at home if you have cold, covid or flu-like symptoms.

Many in our community are vulnerable and will appreciate it if you do not come to the church premises until you are symptom free and have tested negative. Thank you.

If you have notices for the Newsletter please email the Parish Office by 9am Wednesday morning.
