Loving God, on ANZAC Day we remember those who served and those who gave their lives in times of conflict. We honour courage, sacrifice, and the deep cost of war. Hold in your care all who still carry its wounds, in body, mind, and spirit. Inspire us to be people of peace, seeking understanding over division. May remembrance lead us toward compassion, justice, and a future where all may live in dignity and hope. Amen.

Thank you!

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Autumn Sale.

To those who donated, baked, sorted, moved furniture, boxes & plants, advertised, grew plants, volunteered and bought from the sale. We couldn't have done it without you! We are pleased to have raised around $2000. If you have any feedback for the Fundraising Team about the sale please send this into the office by Friday May 1st so they can include it in their review of this event.
