THE PRAYER CORNER

Church Volunteers

Gracious God, we give thanks for the many volunteers whose generosity, dedication, and quiet acts of service help make our church a welcoming and caring community.

For those who lead, organise, visit, clean, bake, garden, support, and serve in countless ways on rosters, we are deeply grateful.

Bless them with strength, joy, and encouragement. Remind us that every contribution matters, whether seen or unseen.

May we continue to work together in love, sharing our gifts to build a community of faith, hope, and belonging. Amen.

WELCOME

Good News

Congratulations to Ross & Elwyn Mayall's grandsons who have been selected to represent New Zealand at the Water Polo World Championships in Portugal & Croatia. Peter's son Max is in the U18 team and his son Luca is captain of the U16 team.

This is an extraordinary achievement for any young athletes, let alone two brothers. Well done!

This Saturday is the monthly Repair Café in the Hall Foyer from 2pm to 4pm.

Come along and bring any items that need repair, tools or knives that need sharpening or electrical items that need testing.

Are you someone who is good at doing repairs or likes to bake?

Come along and join our volunteer team.

Afternoon tea and a chat while you wait.

This Saturday from 2pm—4pm while repair café is on, we also have our monthly outdoor working bee. There is always plenty to do to keep our grounds looking great—weeding, pruning, edging, trimming etc. BYO tools. There is a garden bag here. We have a plentiful supply of leaves at the moment which become a hazard on the paths, roof, and in the car park. If you have a leaf blower with a bag and vacuum option we would be very grateful!!
