Peace

God of peace, quiet our anxious hearts and open us to the needs of others. Where conflict divides nations, communities, and families, nurture understanding, patience, and courage. Help us listen before judging, speak with kindness, and seek justice that honours every person. May we challenge violence, prejudice, and fear, while building relationships rooted in compassion. Guide our choices, both great and small, so that peace becomes more than a hope: a way of living together with love each day. Amen.
