Generous God, thank you for the gifts that sustain our lives: people who love us, communities that welcome us, the beauty of creation, and the resources we are able to share.

Teach us to recognise abundance without ignoring hardship, and to live with gratitude rather than entitlement. Open our hearts to give what we can, whether money, time, practical help, encouragement, or care. May our generosity never be measured against another's, but offered freely and joyfully.

Together, may our contributions strengthen our church, serve our community, and help create a world where everyone has enough and all are valued. Amen.
